

Name: Tom Anderson 8a
Pronoun: He, Him, His
Age: mid 40's
Race/Ethnicity: White
Location: At work (a government agency) standing in the elevator

Setting: Tom has just arrived at work and was trying to make it in the elevator before it closes when his co worker Andrew who is in the elevator sees Tom and holds the door for him. As they are waiting for the elevator to close, they see another co worker coming down the hall who happens to be Muslim and trying to hurry to catch the elevator. When Tom sees her coming he pushes the button to close the door quickly and the elevator leaves.

1. Thanks Andrew for holding the elevator for me.
3. (Tom pushes the button to close the elevator) Well she won't be in this one.
5. Do you really want to be stuck in an elevator with a Muslim? I know I don't. I heard they often target government buildings.
7. We have to be careful and look out for each other, and if that means be extra cautious around people like that, then that is the way it has to be. It is the world we live in now.

Name: Andrew Kelly 8b
Pronoun: He, Him, his
Age: late 30's
Race/Ethnicity: White
Location: At work standing in the elevator

Setting: Andrew has just stepped into the elevator when he sees his friend Tom coming, so he holds the door for him. While waiting for the elevator door to close, Tom and Andrew see another co worker coming down the hall who happens to be Muslim. Tom then pushes the button to close the door even after seeing this co worker make an effort to catch the elevator in time.

2. No worries. I think I see someone else trying to make it in time as well
4. Why did you do that? She could have ridden up with us.
6. I guess you are right, I had never really thought of it like that before
8. That is so true.
